Who We Are

Rukan is a firm delivering strategic counsel across corporate presence strategy, ESG leadership, and governance. We partner with organizations that demand clarity, credibility, and measurable outcomes.

Consultancy

Tailored Programmes for complex organizational challenges

ESG Leadership

Programs that embed sustainability into corporate DNA

Advisory & Documentation

Compliance-ready frameworks and governance architecture

Built on a Foundation of Trust

Rukan was founded on a simple conviction: the most impactful organizations are those that show up with purpose, operate with integrity, and lead with accountability.

What began as a boutique has evolved into a multidisciplinary firm trusted by entrepreneurs, multinationals, NGOs, and community institutions across diverse sectors.

Our name — Rukan — evokes stillness, strength, and enduring structure. That is the standard we hold ourselves to in every engagement.

Our Promise

To deliver work that is not only strategically sound but ethically grounded, operationally precise, and built to endure.

The Minds Behind Rukan

Our leadership brings together decades of experience across strategy, sustainability, executive communications and governance.

Rutuja Nagwekar

Kanchan Tendulkar
Image Consultant

Front-facing expertise in executive presence, public speaking and leadership image strategy.

Presence Strategy

How You Show Up Defines How You Are Perceived

Rukan's Presence Strategy practice helps leaders and organizations craft a deliberate, credible, and compelling identity — internally and externally. From executive positioning to institutional narrative, we engineer presence that commands respect and drives influence.

→ Executive Branding

Personal positioning for C-suite and board-level leaders

→ Organizational Narrative

Story architecture that aligns mission, values, and market perception

→ Stakeholder Communications

Precision messaging for investors, regulators, and communities

Sustainability as Strategy

Rukan designs and delivers ESG leadership programs that move organizations beyond compliance into genuine accountability. Our programs equip leadership teams to embed environmental, social, and governance principles into decision-making at every level.

ESG Leadership Communication

Clear, credible messaging that aligns sustainability priorities with leadership intent

ESG Stakeholder Engagement

Strategic outreach that builds trust across investors, employees, communities, and regulators

ESG-Aligned Executive Presence

Leadership positioning that reinforces accountability, confidence, and influence

Ethical Communication and Branding

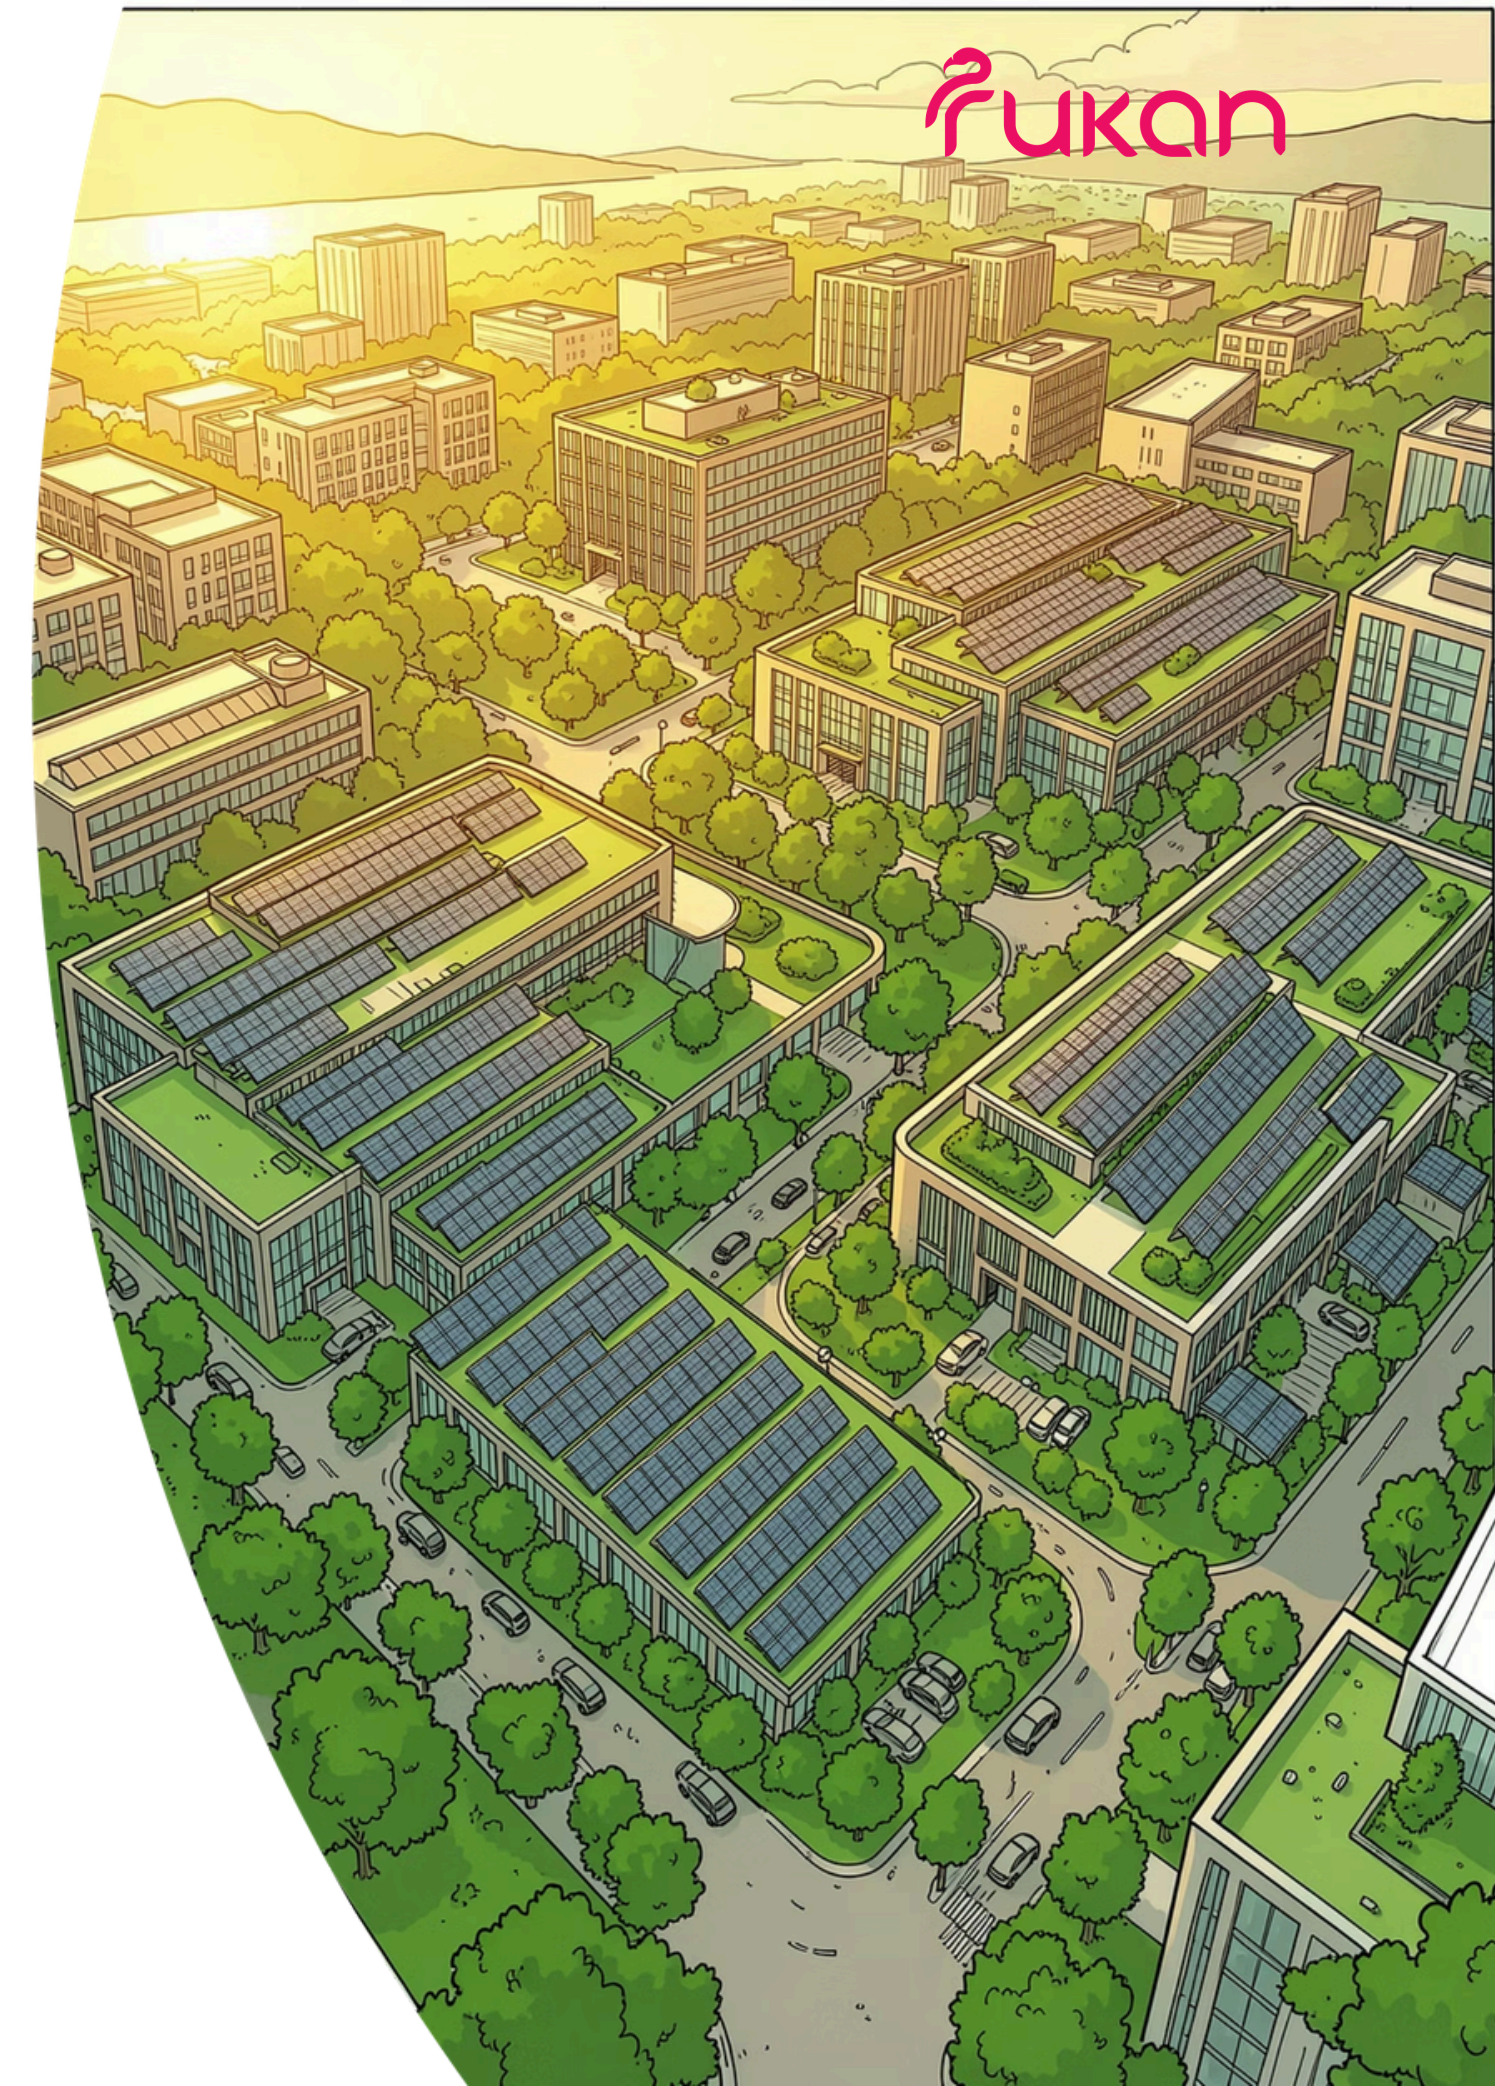

Responsible brand expression grounded in transparency and values

ESG Narrative Development

Compelling storylines that translate sustainability commitments into strategic relevance

Values-Based Leadership Visibility

Public presence that reflects purpose, integrity, and long-term stewardship

Advisory & Documentation

Rukan provides professional advisory and documentation support for organizations, startups, housing societies, leadership teams, and institutions seeking greater operational clarity and compliance confidence.

Our approach combines strategic advisory with structured execution — to support documentation, registrations, governance, contracts, and organizational systems with professionalism and discretion.

1

Documentation & Drafting Support

Precise, professional drafting of organizational documents, policies, and structured records.

2

Registrations & Compliance Assistance

Hands-on support for registrations, statutory filings, and ongoing compliance readiness.

3

Agreements & Contracts

Carefully prepared agreements, contracts and templates to protect what you've built.

4

Housing Society & Organizational Advisory

Specialised advisory for housing societies, associations and member-based organizations.
